DETAILS

This training by Marilyn McKnight and Steve Erickson is the most comprehensive divorce mediation training available. They founded their mediation practice in 1977 and have been leaders in the field of professional divorce and family mediation ever since. Trainees can expect a rigorous training experience that teaches mediation theory, process, strategies, and interventions. Each day there will be a mix of lecture, interactive exercises, fishbowl and small group roleplay as well as question and answer sessions. The trainers bring you their experience as full time mediators.

Our Training teaches a client-centered model of mediation used extensively throughout the mediation field by professional mediators who facilitate a process of resolving conflict and decision-making based on clients' creativity and their own sense of fairness. EMI now offers this highly rated training at a discount to those who have previously taken a 30 Hour Civil Mediation Training or a 40 Hour Divorce Mediation Training and wish to take the EMI 40 Hour Client-Centered Divorce Mediation Training as an advanced training to gain client-centered knowledge or as a refresher course.

To receive discount, a copy of a valid certificate from the previous 30 Hour or 40 Hour training must accompany the registration form. There are only a limited number of spaces available at a discount. Please call to confirm availability.*

EXPERT INSTRUCTION

Steve Erickson and Marilyn McKnight draw on their 40 years of mediation experience to bring you the most up-to-date new thinking and strategies to use in the mediation room. Their case examples are always new and pertinent to today's issues in divorce. The training course is practical in nature by teaching mediator skills and interventions to help their clients reach successful resolution of their disputes. Role-plays are both "fish bowl" where trainers demonstrate mediation, and "small group" where participants apply what they are learning

Steve designed and presented the very first 40-hour Divorce Mediation training which was held in 1980. He has a passion about teaching others to become mediators and particularly, how to create a new profession of Family Mediation. Marilyn has been a pioneer in the field serving as past President of the Academy of Family Mediators and the Association for Conflict Resolution. She currently serves as Chair of the Professional Mediation Board of Standards and is a board member of the Academy of Professional Family Mediators. Marilyn and Steve spent two weeks training new mediators in Singapore in October 2014, and in the Spring of 2015 where, like Minnesota and elsewhere in the US, the courts and the public are turning to a Client-Centered Mediation approach.

COMPREHENSIVE COURSE MANUAL

Past participants have consistently indicated their continued use of their EMI training manual as their primary resource when mediating cases. EMI's training manual contains most of the lecture notes as well as detailed material about new skills, new thinking, new interventions, strategies to avoid impasse, and forms necessary to begin a mediation practice (No repetition/No Filler).

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Participants are required to be present throughout the entire course in order to compile the hours necessary to qualify for a certificate of completion and to complete any continuing education requirements that may be applied for upon request. No exceptions.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE

Registration includes EMI's comprehensive training manual, numerous handouts, and a certificate of completion. Completed registration form and deposit (half of tuition) must be received by October 16, 2017 for the training. For late registration add $200. EMI cannot guarantee a space for those who register after the registration deadline.
